PALMETTO SCHOLARS ACADEMY NAMES EMERIEL C. (EM)
HUBBARD, JR. AS FIRST PERMANENT PRINCIPAL

NORTH CHARLESTON, SC- Palmetto Scholars Academy's Board of Directors is pleased to announce the selection of Emeriel C. (Em) Hubbard, Jr. as the school's first permanent Principal. Mr. Hubbard has extensive administrative experience, having served as the Head of School for Trinity Collegiate School in Darlington, SC, Headmaster at St. Andrew's School in Savannah, GA, and Headmaster of Beaufort Academy, in Beaufort, SC. Mr. Hubbard serves on the Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Independent Schools, and is an active Rotarian. Starting his career as a social studies teacher, Mr. Hubbard has a Bachelor of Arts in Education and a Master of Education in School Administration from the University of South Carolina, 30 post-graduate credits in School Leadership from Georgia Southern University, and International Baccalaureate administrative certification.

"This is an exciting opportunity and I am delighted to work with the wonderful children, the expert team of educators, and the dedicated volunteers of PSA. I am also grateful to the Board of Directors for choosing me to help them lead the school as it expands its scope and services and pursues continuous improvements." said Hubbard.

Palmetto Scholars Academy (PSA) is a South Carolina Public Charter School for gifted and talented students in the 6th through 9th grades and is open to students from any county or school district and is tuition free. Additional High School grades are being added beginning in the 2012-2013 school year. Applications for the 2011-2012 school year are now being accepted for grades 6-9. Information regarding the school is available at www.palmettoscholarsacademy.org.
